

SHEIK'S FIRST MATE SUMMONED BEFORE LOS ANGELES JUDGE

RODOLPH VALENTINO'S SECOND
TRIP ONTO SEAS OF MATRI-MONY MAY CONCLUDE IN HIS BEING DECLARED A BIGAMIST.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 18.—Jean Acker, film actress, from whom Rodolph Valentino, film actor, obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce a few months ago, was notified to report to the district attorney's office today to tell what she knows of the facts in the court action which gave Valentino a decree, but left him technically her husband for a year longer.

Thomas McClelland, deputy district attorney, sent a summons to the Acker woman, and at the same time assigned investigators to learn whether Valentino committed bigamy, according to the California laws, when he married Winifred Hudnut, dancer and film art director known professionally as Natacha Rambova, at Mexicali, Saturday.

Los Angeles superior court judges have stated informally that such a marriage as that of Valentino and the Hudnut woman is bigamous.

Miss Hudnut's name was introduced into the divorce trial through the identification of a picture of herself and Valentino.

The first legal action was taken by Miss Acker. She filed a suit for separate maintenance, alleging Valentino had not supported her. She asserted that when she married him he had nothing; that partly through her efforts he gained fame as an actor and that then he failed to support her.

On a cross complaint, Valentino asked for a divorce, saying Miss Acker had deserted him. On the witness stand he detailed alleged attempts to persuade her to return to him and made the declaration he wanted her and loved her, and he would take her back if she would go back to him.

According to Douglas Gerrard, film director and producer, at Valentino's wedding at Mexicali the actor entered into the ceremony in good faith. He said Valentino is at Palm Springs, Cal., and plans to remain there for the present.
